

DAY'S DOINGS IN DUNMORE BOROUGH

HORSES RAN AWAY ON SOUTH BLAKELY STREET.

Barouche Was Overturned and Two Young Women Who Were in It Were Injured—Boys Made a Raid on Harry M. Spencer's Choice Pigeons—Programme That Was Rendered at the Firemen's Fair Last Night—Christmas Exercises in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

A team of horses, hitched to a barouche belonging to Gorman's livery, of Scranton, ran away yesterday morning on South Blakely street overturning the barouche and severely injuring Misses Ella and Maggie Hazen, two of the occupants. The horses started to get away near the Kerstone brewery, and as they traversed the distance between the brewery and the Erie and Wyoming Valley bridge, which spans South Blakely street at No. 6, they gained considerable speed. The driver saw that they were to be dashed against the abutment of the bridge, if they kept Blakely street, so using all his strength he turned the team up Cherry street. The turn proved too short, however, and the barouche was turned completely over, throwing the occupants out and against an electric pole.

Willing hands were soon upon the spot and helped the Misses Hazen to their brother's business place near Johnson's store. Later they were removed to their home on William street and a physician called. Their injuries consist of cuts and bruises chiefly about the head, besides a great shock. The young men, John Kerrigan and John Sheath escaped with a few bruises. No blame is attached to the driver for the accident.

CHOICE PIGEONS STOLEN.

Youthful pigeon thieves broke into the barn of Harry M. Spencer, of East Drinker street, Sunday night and stole some of the choicest birds. The strangest part, which will surprise the marauders and make them feel queer, is that Mr. Spencer was in the barn at the time but decided to let them finish their work.

They have the choice of returning the birds or else suffer the consequences of their folly. The boys' names are known but are withheld from print to give them the chance of returning the birds.

FIREMEN'S FAIR.

The firemen's fair was well attended last evening. On the programme were the celebrated sketch artists, Collins and Matthews, who produced their famous song, dance and negro sketches which were well received by all present, they having to respond to several encores.

This evening will be known as "Our Guests' Night," when the Eagle Hose company, of Pittston, "Crystal Hose company," of Scranton, "Columbia Chemical

It's lucky for you if you did, for it won't cost you now over half of what you would have had to pay last week.

Of Course the Lots Are Broken

Nevertheless the selection is very good. This is particularly the case in Bric-a-Brac and Pictures, where the choice is all that could be wished for, considering that Christmas is over.

EVENTS OF THE DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES HELD IN SEVERAL CHURCHES.

Michael Gormley, of South Seventh Street, fell on North Main Avenue and Fractured His Ankle—Many Persons Remembered the Hospital. Funeral of Mrs. D. Holmes from Late Residence on North Summer Avenue—Italian School Entertain in Presbyterian Church Tonight.

The day passed off very quietly on this side yesterday, nothing of any particular moment occurring. In most of the churches during the evening, exercises appropriate to Christmas were carried out. These exercises were mainly for the children of the Sunday schools of the respective churches, but the parents and older sisters and brothers were in attendance. At each, much the same form of entertainment was carried out, followed by the distribution of candies, nuts and fruit from the big Christmas tree. At some of the churches, however, rather elaborate programmes were given.

Probably the finest of the evening's entertainments was given at the Simpson Methodist church. The auditorium was crowded with spectators. The parts, the first being devoted to the children of the primary department and included solos, recitations, etc., by the little ones. A Santa Claus was also introduced here. The second part was an original production of "Ye Olde Folk's Party," and consisted of the idea of an old-time entertainment by Mr. and Mrs. Knickerbocker. This last part was given in the costume of the days of our great grandfathers. The whole programme as published heretofore in this paper was carried out. The Sunday school exercises consisted of several selections. The committee of arrangements comprised Mrs. J. R. Sweet, Mrs. Thomas Bees, Miss Nell Fellows, Wellington Hagerman and Willis Sweet.

The members of the Sunday school, under the direction of Mrs. A. E. Ewing, gave a full and excellent rendition of the cantata "The Christmas Story," which was a most interesting and impressive performance. The cantata was given in the costume of the days of our great grandfathers. The whole programme as published heretofore in this paper was carried out. The Sunday school exercises consisted of several selections. The committee of arrangements comprised Mrs. J. R. Sweet, Mrs. Thomas Bees, Miss Nell Fellows, Wellington Hagerman and Willis Sweet.

BROKE HIS ANKLE!

Michael Gormley, of South Seventh street, met with an injury last evening about 9:30 o'clock on North Main avenue. He was riding a bicycle, which will confine him to his home for sometime. Patrolman Thomas found him lying in the street perfectly helpless, and he said his leg was broken, claiming that some one had run him down as he was crossing the street. Passerby claim that while the carriage passed close to him, his injuries were caused by his slipping and falling.

The injured man was carried to the station house and Dr. B. G. Beddoe upon examination found that the right ankle was injured. Mr. Gormley was removed to his home.

FUNERAL OF MRS. D. HOLMES.

The attendance at the funeral of the late Mrs. David Holmes, which was held yesterday morning, was very large. The remains were taken from the residence, 318 North Summer avenue, to St. David's Episcopal church, where services were held. The pastor, Rev. E. J. McHenry, officiated and preached a short but eloquent sermon. The choir sang the hymn selections. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Washburn street cemetery where interment was made. The pallbearers were Vestrymen Fraser, Bunnell, Evans and Marchand.

HOSPITAL REMEMBERED.

Several persons found time Saturday and yesterday amidst their joys to remember the West Side hospital. The staff of physicians and board of management and Matron Smith were gratefully surprised by the tokens of remembrance and thoughtfulness of West Scrantonians and hereby acknowledge the receipt of the donations. Those who donated the articles are as follows: Interior decorations, Dr. Houser, of Taylor; wreaths, Junie Epworth League chapter of the Simpson Methodist church; one dozen women's gowns and a bath robe, from the Women's Home Missionary society of the Simpson Methodist church; chicken, Mrs. J. J. Carroll; turkeys, Meat Merchant; "Frosting and Reids," of Jackson street; and Mrs. E. Saul, of Madison avenue; pork, Mrs. Poljcek, of Bald Mount; cakes, etc., Mrs. W. H. ITALIANS WILL ENTERTAIN.

Two years ago an Italian school was opened at the Washburn street Presbyterian church under the direction of the church vestry and the Misses Peck and Harris were given charge. The Tribune has already printed a description of the work done by this school and results accomplished. This evening the members of the school will give an entertainment at the church, which they have prepared themselves.

Miss Ermina Carlucci, soprano soloist; Miss Marion Hutchinson, piano soloist; Mrs. R. Jones and Mrs. E. L. Williams as signers. G. Moreno, piano soloist, are among the artists who will participate. A free will offering will be taken, no admission being charged. The funds thus obtained will be devoted to the school work. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the entertainment.

ATTEMPT TO KILL.

Patrick Brown, of Keyser Valley, whose arrest and exciting escapade at the Alder street police station was related in this column yesterday, will be arraigned probably today before Alderman Ruddy to answer the charge of attempting to kill.

John Brink, of Cherry street, a brother-in-law of Brown's, and who, as noted yesterday, committed the aggravated assault on Brown, gave the information for the arrest.

He alleges that Brown when at his home Sunday night during a lively argument, drew a knife and made an effort to stab Mrs. Brink. He further states that when he struck Brown with the stove rack, he tried to save his wife from the intended cutting. A warrant has been issued by Alderman Lentes for Brink's arrest also.

SUNDAY SCHOOL EXERCISES.

The Christmas exercises of the German branch of the Sunday school of the Hickory street Presbyterian church were held yesterday afternoon and last night at the church. Tomorrow the English branch of the school will assemble for a like purpose. The affair of yesterday was of a highly enjoyable nature, the afternoon being devoted to the little ones and the evening to the advanced pupils. Rev. W. A. Nordt, the untiring pastor, was present and assisted greatly at the exercises. Two mammoth trees were laden with gifts for the children, each child receiving a box of candy and two oranges.

In the evening a programme of special music was rendered under the direction of Prof. Schmidt and Frederick William Torpe, son of Druggist F. L. Torpe. At tomorrow's celebration a similar programme will be observed.

AN ELEVATOR ACCIDENT.

Jacob Robinson, of River street, a carpenter employed by Spruks Brothers, was injured severely yesterday. He with several fellow workmen were making some changes at the wholesale house of David Spruks on Lackawanna avenue. Robinson was in the elevator and when it was approaching the second floor the young man's foot slipped between the elevator and the wall. With presence of mind he stopped the elevator and called for help. The member was extricated and found to be in a badly bruised condition. A physician was called and attended the injury. The injured man was then removed to his home.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH FAIR.

It is probable that at the fair of St. John's church, now in progress at the church hall on Fig street, there will be tonight a gathering larger than that present last night. The large room was taxed to the limit by the leading people of this part of the city. An excellent entertainment was given and many articles of value were sold.

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

COUNTRY DANCE OF THE CENTURY HOSE COMPANY.

It Was Held Last Night in Natter's Hall—The Dance of the Afternoon Was of the Ordinary Kind—Brown Will Be Charged with Attempt to Kill—Jacob Robinson, a Carpenter, Is Injured in an Elevator Accident. Hickory Street Presbyterian Sunday School Exercises.

The dance of yesterday afternoon and the country dance of last night at Natter's hall of the Century Hose company were unquestionably two of the leading events of the kind this season on the South Side. The attendance was very large and included the representative people of this part of the city.

The afternoon was devoted to the customary order of dancing. The feature of the two periods, however, was the Rub's outing in the evening. It was in every sense a complete success and was enjoyed to a great degree. The costumes of the participants of the country dance were not bad imitations of those ordinarily used by agriculturists. Miss Nellie Curran played the dance music.

The committee of arrangements was composed of: Louis Schwass, chairman; Ed. Frable, Harry Kelley, Christian Storr, Robert O'Donnell, Patrick Feeney, John May, Jacob Harner, Louis Kneller, Fred. Koppke and Louis Scheuer.
